

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Director, [REDACTED] 25X1A8a DATE: [REDACTED] 25X1A2g

FROM : Chief, Washington Office

SUBJECT: Appreciation for Assistance of Messrs. [REDACTED] 25X1A9a

25X1A9a 1. At the urgent request of Donald Agger, Assistant Secretary of 25X1A9a Transportation for International Affairs, a briefing was arranged for 27 March 1967 regarding the Soviet and French SST programs and the Paris Air Show at Le Bourget. [REDACTED] invited [REDACTED] (OSI/25X1A9a DSD/CSMB) and [REDACTED] (ORR/MRA/F/AS) to participate.

25X1A9a 2. This memorandum is to express real appreciation for the help and conduct of [REDACTED]. Their performance was in every way impressive. Under aggressively direct questioning of Mr. Agger their quietly deep professionalism and personal interest became very apparent. The resulting exchange was more than could have been hoped.

3. It was a pleasure to have the assistance of such able and pleasant colleagues, particularly at this juncture when both Mr. Boyd, as Secretary of Transportation, and Mr. Agger, as Assistant Secretary, are establishing the methods of operating the Department.
